

February 18, 2009

Extra, Extra . . .

Taking a hint from last week's observation about the 'Hallmark' & florists' holiday, Lion Tamer Phil Penn got the 'Tiny Tim' terrific Teutonic tenors to tingle the spines of everyone with 'Let me call you sweetheart'. In addition to the 39 Lions, we had two guests: Stephana Cunningham (guest of Jeannie Valencourt) and Beth Belkoff (guest of Diane Parker).

Master Tail Twister Greg Dowsett put aside all caution and pursued the following:

- Duane Petersen, for shedding his usual green sweater with Purdue's recent 'beat em up' rout of Michigan State;
- Jeannie Valencourt got a buck for listening to the Tail Twister's advice;
- Mark Mow and Doug Hasler- both for being here at the same time and leaving the community's educational status in the hands of others;
- Chet Nunan for his recent photo in the paper w/o Lions pin;
- Laura Swinehart for distributing flyers promoting her business;
- Gary Chastain for grabbing the box of donated Girl Scout cookies before his table could partake of them.

Winners: Karin Frey, Brian Thomas, Carter Elliott, Greg Dowsett

Travel Fund winners: $5- Karin Fry; $10- Jeannie Valencourt

Paul Thomas, GOTO (that's Good of the Order in government-speak), reviewed the history of the charter members, their work and places of residence.

Other Stuff

We're getting ready for more KidSight screenings. If you have an interest in participating, contact Ann Kalman, Diane Parker and/or Duane Klein.

Other Stuff

Toward the end of February, there will be another meeting to start planning for this coming year's Lions Tales Newspaper. Watch for more info on date/location/time.

We recently purchased a used concession trailer. A special 50/50 drawing was held (and will continue) to help us raise funds to make some repairs and improvements. If you're interested in helping, contact Lion Nelson Nix. Oh, Mark Mow

If you didn't get fined, you should pay admission just for the entertainment !

Other Stuff

interested in helping, contact Lion Nelson Nix. Oh, Mark Mow won the drawing and contributed his half toward this effort!

Other Stuff

The next meeting of the committee to complete the Memorial Flag project will be Tuesday, March 17th at noon at the Four Arts Building.

Arden Erickson is back home and is anxious to get to our meetings. However, he can't drive. Interested in helping out? Give Arden a call.

Other Stuff

Missed a program you wanted to hear? We've started to archive the program with audio files you can listen to on the internet. From our home page, click on the 'Links' button and then select the 'Audio Links' button near the bottom of the page. It may take a day or two after the meeting to get the file uploaded.

Program

Greg Halling, managing editor of The Elkhart Truth, informed us of the status of today's newspapers. They are facing increased competition today and their ability to survive hinges on how well they can react and adapt to the changes.

Next Meeting

Mark Potuck, Elkhart County Health Dept./ Smoke Free Indiana. This will be an exciting and entertaining program! Be sure to bring a guest!

Attendance Drawing

Oooops, she left early, earlier, but left before she could take home the $19. How do you spell R O L L O V E R ?

Karin Frey was here

Thought for the Day

What disease did cured ham actually have?

Elkhart Lions Club
P.O. Box 81
Elkhart, IN 46515

Home