This year's District 25-G golf outing will be Wednesday, August 4 at Syracuse's Maxwellton Golf Course. Lions interested in participating must arrange for their own four-somes. An application form is available for download from our website's home page. Cost per play, which includes golf, cart and dinner is $65.

Other Stuff

Newspaper Project planning sessions have been held and key chairmen appointed for the 2010 paper. General chairman will be Chet Nunan; Editor- Marty Juel; Sales- Cliff Yehle; Production- Dave Dufour. Yet to be named is the distribution chairman, however an announcement is due shortly. The theme for this year's paper is: Lions- A World of Service. We will be devoting the entire paper to highlight the club's projects, as well as key Indiana Lions and International Lions projects. The paper will be an ideal tool for the use in recruiting new members. The newspaper committee will be meeting to make additional plans in an effort to dramatically increase our profitability and visibility. If you are anxious to get involved, give chairman Nunan a call!

Other Stuff

Board meeting scheduled for Thursday, July 1. All new board members and ANY INTERESTED LION is encouraged to attend the first board meeting of our new year. "I didn't know that!!!" If that's the response you give when you find out about a Lions' event coming up, or, heaven forbid, one you just missed, then be sure to visit our calendar page frequently to see what's planned. We try to get as many events possible on this calendar, so you won't have to say, "I didn't know that!!!" in the future.

Other Stuff

Read the Lions Magazine online! See the special info block and link on the home page of our website.

Don't forget our new web-based calendar of events. PLEASE, if you have an event planned, be sure to pass on the info to Marty Juel so it can be listed (or updated). Did you know that if you subscribe to the calendar, you can get email alerts to the Lions events?

Program

Oooops, not now. Hey, do you have an idea for a program when we begin our weekly meetings in September? Contact a board member with your suggestions.

Next Meeting

Remember, we do not have regular noon meetings during June, July and August. Special e-newsletters will be sent to keep members informed of activities.

Thought for the Day

The difference between 'try' and 'triumph' is a little 'umph'.
