Harvard- Not exactly 'old school'

In addition to Dave Dufour's guest, Joe Pawlosky, and Bill Thorne's guest, Dick Miller, we had four additional special guests in attendance. Dave Freeze, his wife, Sue, and their son Nick, along with service dog and recent graduate of the Rochester Leader Dog School, Harvard, were with us. Our club provided additional assistance for Sue when she went to Rochester to pick up her new companion, Harvard. Even during our 'singing', Harvard seemed oblivious to the noontime activities.

Setting a record with the least amount of time to prepare for TailTwisting duties, VP Gary found fodder to fill the void.

On 'very' late notice,
TailTwisting duties thrust onto
VP Gary Chastain

- Duane Peterson for having his 'mouthpiece' and other body parts in the paper with the Senior (or is that 'Señor') Saxes;
- Bill VanPatten for leaving last week's tickets in the TailTwister's pot, and 'snitching' on Lion Duane Peterson;
- Dave Dufour for an ugly hat;
- Marty Juel, 'cause the tailtwister said he could;
- All Lions sans a Lions pin.

Winners: Marty Juel, Dave Freeze

Travel Fund Winners: Yves Lonchamp, Warren Breniman

Other Stuff

Al Norris reported on the outcome of the preference poll with members to determine what social event his and Laura Swinehart's committee should plan. By an overwhelming plurality of one vote over the second place choice, a wine trip to southern Michigan (probably Tabor Hill) will be planned. The second choice was a trip on the Elkhart Queen.

Other Stuff

Paul Camiller was presented with his second Melvin Jones Fellowship, for his efforts in supporting the Lions Clubs International Foundation and its worldwide service work.

Other Stuff

Nick Hoffman is looking for individuals to volunteer to be dodgeball referees.
