When Irish Eyes Were Smiling

What else? Lion Em led the group in this folk song located on page 24 (or was that page 18?) of our songbooks. You didn't have a songbook? Ummmmmmmmmmmm.

Jumping into action in his debut as TailTwister, Jack (A Good MAN) made the following pronouncements:

- Anyone not wearing green;
- Pete Peterson, 'cause TailTwister Jack is sick of hearing so much about Michigan State and he's been waiting for the opportunity to fine Pete;
- Gary Boyn, who almost ran the TT over in the parking lot;
- Nelson Nix and Ray Enfield for trying to look like 'twins', but more important, trying to imitate the TT's appearance;
- Prez Chet for not using the 'Thought for the day' that TT Jack left for him to use;
- Cliff Yehle, for attempting to portray a teacher in his retirement;
- Gary Chastain, who allegedly went outside for a smoke;

Winners: Warren Breniman, Bill Thorne, Ann Kalman
Travel Fund Winners: Nelson Nix, Bill Addison

A Good Man Rose to Occasion

Other Stuff Under the good of the order, Paul Thomas informed the group that Harvey Hinks is in Elkhart General Hospital. He also read the names of those with March Birthdays.

Other Stuff Karin Frey passed out corrected order forms for this year's bedding plant sales. (A copy is also on our website. See link from our home page.) Members were encouraged to pass out copies to anyone who does spring planting. Plants will be delivered to us for pickup on May 8.

Other Stuff We will visit the Dunlap Lions on Thursday, March 18. Meet at the Old Country Buffet in Dunlap at 6:30 p.m., located in the beautiful and spacious Market Centre Shopping Center (between Elkhart and Goshen on US 33).

Other Stuff State Convention forms are available at the badge desk. Anyone can attend the convention at no charge, except for the meals and golf outing. Our club will be hosting a hospitality room in South Bend, to further encourage members to stop over for the day's activities and see the numerous exhibits.
