Pdue what ?

Lion Em, himself a proud Boilermaker (the graduate, not the drink!), tried to get the 28 Lions together for a resounding chorus of Hail Purdue, but it sounded more like, 'What the Hail was that'. Lion Bill Loftus brought a guest, local optometrist David Britzke.

Happy
Hauntings from TailTwister
Duane

Lion Duane did a 'Halloween Trivia' with today's TailTwisting adventures.

- Of course, all those 'sans' Lions pins paid (say that three times real fast);
- Cliff Yehle and Pat Porter were cited for talking while the TT was working the room;
- Jack Goodman didn't know what country started the jack-o-lantern tradition (Ireland);
- Al Norris didn't know the Halloween meaning of orange (fall color) and black (death) colors;
- Gary Chastain didn't know what year the Count Dracula Society was formed (come on, everyone knew it was 1962);
- Harvey Hinks forgot that the 1st wrapped candy was the Tootsie Roll;
- Jeremy Geiger missed the question on where the vampire bats are native (Central America).

Winners: Gary Chastain, David Britzke, Duane Klein, Tara Morris.

Travel Fund winners: $5- David Britzke; $10- Paul Thomas.

Other Stuff THIS SATURDAY: Be sure to plan on working our next Chicken Bar-B-Que sale at Bristol/Cassopolis Street and Hively/Prairie Street.

Other Stuff Bill Loftus reported we have sold over 60 Elder Beerman coupon books. They are good on Nov. 14 and more can still be sold.

Other Stuff Cliff Yehle mentioned today is the deadline for newspaper ads. Unfortunately we've really dropped off from previous year sales and to date, our effort is barely $3700. He will extend the deadline for a short time so please get out and sell ads.

Other Stuff Avoid being fined: If you haven't worked at one of the previous concession trailer events, be sure to work one of the two locations this weekend. The TailTwister is keeping track of who works!
