What's all this about 'lipstick' ?

Today's program wasn't supposed to be political, but then, with politicians in the news, is pork far behind? Lion Tamer Nancy Carter got the group to 'Shine on Harvest Moon'.

NO GUESTS! That should change, with news about a new incentive program that was announced at the meeting. We had 37 Lions in attendance.

Tail Twister Greg didn't have many, but he managed to cite a few members nonetheless.

TT Giveth and Taketh

- Harvey Hinks for being stopped last week without his seat belt (and wearing his Lions shirt, which probably caused irreparable harm to our reputation!).
- Phil Lux and Bob Homan because they were cautiously trying to avoid the TT's attention and prevent being fined.
- Gary Boyn for refusing a favor earlier today from the TailTwister.
- Karin Frey for also confusing the TailTwister and not doing him a favor.
- All those who didn't take last week or this week a coupon book for the KidSight fund raising project.

After a false start (much to the chagrin of Joe Grolimund), the winners were: Warren Breniman, Jeannie Valencourt, Pat Porter, Joe Grolimund, Gary Chastain.

Travel Fund winners: $5 - Dennis Tudor; $10-Bill Cork

Paul Thomas passed around a roster for all to sign. It will be placed in the sesquicentennial time capsule (Don't worry, he's also putting in a map so we can find it in 50 years!)

Pat Porter was recognized for her 26 years of service to the city. She recently retired.

Marty Juel reported on the Membership Committee's incentive program. The person who brings the most prospects (persons who are potential members) to the meetings in October will receive free lunches at Lions meetings in November; the person who brings the most prospects to meetings in November will receive free lunches at Lions meetings in December. Further, there will be a Propsective Lions Breakfast introductory meeting for any/all prospects on Saturday, Nov. 15 at 8:30 a.m. (Location to be announced later.) The person who is responsible for the most people (prospects) to attend this function will also receive free lunches at Lions meetings in December. Forms were distributed at Wednesday's meeting, and they will continue to be in the money baskets at every table from here on. Also, you may email your prospects' name, address and phone number to: membership@elkhartlions.org.

Other Stuff

Other Stuff

Greg Dowsett reminded everyone that the deadline for the PRINTED newsletter is this FRIDAY.

Other Stuff

Cliff Yehle had replacement contracts for those who did not get them last week. Also, a pink specification sheet is also included with each packet. These are to be left for those ads sold that are NOT repeats from last year.

Other Stuff

Next Tuesday, September 23, from 11:30 to 12:30 there will be training for KidSight volunteers. Additional people are needed to assist with vision screening of area pre-schoolers. Since all the equipment is new, experienced team members should also attend.

Other Stuff

Training will be held at the former Four Arts Club at 311 West High Street in Elkhart. Park in the city-owned lot at the intersection of Third and Franklin, entering from Franklin Street. Use the rear entrance of the building which is located next to Elkhart Community Bank.

Other Stuff

Arden Erickson has been released from the hospital this past Saturday. He recently had surgery and is now recovering at home.

Paul Camiller explained the coupon books we are selling. They may be used Sat. Nov. 15 and for $5, the person immediately gets a coupon worth $10 at Elder Berman, plus additional discounts. All our profits ($5 per book we sell) will go to our KidSight photoscreening project.

Program

Rebecca Schroeder from the Whiteshire Farms gave a report on the pork industry, 'More than just the other white meat'.

Next Meeting

District Governor Sam Fryback (Syracuse Lions Club member) will be here for his official visit and will install one of our recent new members, John Leighty.

Attendance Drawing

As Mike Iavagnilio found out, you got to be present to win. His name was selected, he was here last week, but left early today, leaving $24 for someone else to claim.

Thought for the Day If you lend someone money and you never ever see that person again, it was probably worth it
