

October 30, 2008

"Pick me, pick me! ! !"

Soon the 'Great Pumpkin' will arise from the patch, bringing toys to. . .', ooops, sorry Charlie Brown. At today's meeting, we had 38 Lions and one guest, Janet Iavagnilio, mother of Lion Mike I. Leading us in that great tribute to all the Hotpoints in the world, Phil Penn led us in a 'hot' version of Home on the Range. Phil continued in true prez of the chamber form by passing our flyers announcing an event at the RV/MH Hall of Fame. (fine fodder?)

When the 'Who wants to be Tail Twister' game was over, Mike Iavagnilio had the short straw and made the following citations:

- Chet Nunan got a buck for taking over at the very last minute, including being chaplain and prez, all for the same pay.
- Traci Porter got a buck for her attendance.
- Deb Hogan and Len Pickering, who we learned are going 'trick or treating' together and will be dressed as (here's a scary thought) 401-(k)'s.
- Joe Grolimund for not coming to Lion Mike I's assistance when he had to leave early, before his name was drawn for the attendance drawing.
- Chuck Stenberg for announcing the wrong date for the Crying Towel
- Nelson Nix, Paul Camiller and Cliff Yehle, for turning down the golden opportunity of being TailTwister today.
- Dennis Tudor got a buck for helping sell tickets.

Winners: Nancy Carter, Gary Chastain, Cliff Yehle, Sandy Iavagnilio
 Travel Fund winners: $5 - Al Bias; $10-Paul Camiller

Tail Twister Travels & Takes

Other Stuff

You still have time to qualify for FREE LUNCHES. See the home page of our website for details...

Cliff Yehle announced that newspaper sales are in a SERIOUS SLUMP. Members were encouraged to get out and sell them as the deadline is only about one week

Other Stuff away.

The Indiana Lions Mid-Winter Conference will be January 10th in Indy. To download complete information, click on this link: Mid-Winter Conference

Other Stuff

Nelson Nix spoke briefly on the upcoming Membership Recruitment Breakfast AND new member orientation that will be on November 15 from 8:30 to 10:00 at the Elks. To date, only about 10% of our members have proposed names to the committee. All members are requested to simply send names, addresses and phone numbers of individuals who they THINK may be good members. The committee will make the contact to the invite these folks to the breakfast. We're hoping to get 75 people, which means we'll need to invite about 150.

Other Stuff

Keep selling Elder Bermann coupon books. See Paul Camiller for additional books.

See the information on the home page about two upcoming KidSight events.

Other Stuff

Other Stuff

The Winterfest parade will be November 30. Watch for signup sheets to participate as well as help decorate the award winning Lions float.

Mike Iavagnilio Receives Club Citizenship Award

Recognized for his numerous contributions to civic and other organizations in the community, Past President Mike Iavagnilio was presented the club's Citizenship Award. Shown at left are Elkhart Lions Vice President Chet Nunan (L) and Lion Mike Iavagnilio.

Program

Greg Hinkle gave us information on the history and purpose of the Samaritan Center.

Next Meeting

Dwayne Boling, Boatsmate 1st Class, U.S. Navy (active) will present- 'The Military Past & Present'. Bring a veteran friend to this special salute to veterans.

CHANGE IN PROGRAMS: November 12 will be our annual crying towel. Congressman Joe Donnelly will be rescheduled.

Attendance Drawing

Bruce Shreiner missed out on $64,000 (sorry about that Joyce Brothers), er, make that $64.

Thought for the Day

The quickest way to double your money is to fold it and put it back in your pocket.

Elkhart Lions Club
P.O. Box 81
Elkhart, IN 46515

Home